

Global Medical Education Acquired by Clinical Education Alliance

Torreya served as financial advisor to GME

Reston, VA, October 20, 2020

Global Medical Education (GME), a nationally recognized provider of continuing education for healthcare professionals primarily focused on psychiatry, has been acquired by Clinical Care Options®, LLC (CCO), a Clinical Education Alliance (CEA) Holdings company.

GME has provided free, timely, unbiased, evidence-based continuing medical education from the world's leading experts to healthcare professionals around the world. CEA represents a growing alliance of continuing medical education provider and services organizations that together improve patient care through the delivery of clinically relevant, evidence based educational activities and turnkey solutions. The partnership with CEA will expand GME's reach and resources to support the company's growth.

Torreya served as exclusive financial advisor to GME on this transaction. This deal represents Torreya's continued expansion into healthcare services and excitement around medical communication and education. Torreya has advised on almost 30 assignments in the healthcare industry since the beginning of 2020.
