

FairJourney Biologics Receives Investment from GHO Capital Partners

Torreya served as financial advisor to FairJourney Biologics

London, United Kingdom and Porto, Portugal, February 3, 2020

FairJourney Biologics, a global leader in monoclonal antibody discovery services, has received an investment by GHO Capital, a European specialist investor in healthcare, to partner with the founding management team. FairJourney has an extensive track record in over 460 antibody discovery projects delivered with a best-in-class 99%+ success rate that have underpinned a topline growth CAGR in excess of 30% in recent years with the Company currently serving over 70 customers globally. The Company serves a high growth end market, estimated to be expanding at approximately 15% per year.

In partnership with FairJourney's founding management, GHO will provide further capital, sector expertise and international network to build on FairJourney's unique market position and create a scaled global leader in outsourced biologics discovery and development services.

Torreya advised FairJourney on the transaction. The transaction highlights Torreya's strength in advising companies in the pharmaceutical services and bioproduction sectors. It also demonstrates our strong relationships with the Private Equity community. Torreya has advised on almost 30 transactions in the healthcare industry since the beginning of 2019.
